

The Food Court of Faculty of Business Studies (FBS) at Dhaka University is a vibrant dining hub for students, faculty, and visitors. The Food Court offers a wide range of food options, and provides a cozy space for students to relax, study, or catch up with friends between classes.

A unique feature of the FBS Food Court is its exclusive partnership with popular local vendors- 'Tasty Treat', and 'Baburchi'. From traditional Bengali meals to fast food options, the menu caters to diverse preferences. The exclusive arrangement with these vendors includes discounted pricing, making meals affordable for students, which is especially valued in a university setting.

With ample seating arrangement and a lively atmosphere, the food court is more than just a place to eat. It is an integral part of campus life at FBS, fostering a sense of community and offering a convenient, enjoyable break space.
